Find Your Next Act

You've reached the summit. Now, what's next? Are you ready to redefine success and find your next act that aligns with your current passions and values?

Encore is an immersive experience that offers a transformative path for successful professionals who are asking the “What’s Next” question. Through intimate peer groups and expert guidance, you will delve into your passions, values, and strengths. With hands-on learning in inspiring locations, you’ll discover new career paths aligned with your purpose and embark on a fulfilling next act.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Encore is designed for seasoned professionals who are at an inflection point in their life and career. They’ve accomplished most of their personal and professional goals and are now trying to define their next meaningful, purpose-filled chapter.

AN UNPARALLELED EXPERIENCE

Encore is a year-long experience dedicated to supporting you on your journey to what's next. Experience highlights include:

Expert Facilitation & Coaching – Led by professionals with decades of executive coaching and facilitation experience, you'll receive expert guidance through every step of your journey.

Peer Learning & Coaching – You'll join an intimate, curated groups of 8-10 peers, each on their own journey to finding their next act.

Experiential Learning – Sitting and talking to each other will only get you so far. Real breakthroughs occur in hands-on learning experiences that generate tangible insights.

Research-Based Foundation – Informed by the latest research on adult development, and especially the elements that create sustainable well-being for active, high-achieving professionals in the later stages of their career.

Breathtaking Settings – Each in-person session takes place in locations chosen for their beauty as well as the surrounding natural elements that lend themselves to the experiential learning elements of the experience.
